

McCloskey International's brief was to help them create a indoor and outdoor stand at the International Bauma exhibition in Munich, Germany.

The key to the design was to ensure that the brand message was translated across the two stands correctly.

This was achieved using our new range of Moda outdoor structures and a open planned indoor stand for hospitality inside one of the halls.

